(a) whether it is a fact that the Ministry has already set up National Cultural Mutual Complex, (NCMC) if so, what are the details thereof;

(b) what are the functions of NCM Complexes;

(c) what is the total allocation for this activity and how much has been spent, so far, location-wise; and

(d) how different are the activities of NCM Complexes from the other Government aided institutes?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND DEPARTMENT OF CULTURE) (KUMARI SELJA): (a) and (b) No, Sir. However, a scheme for setting up Multi-purpose Cultural Complexes in States has been formulated. Under this scheme the land is to be given free of cost by the State Government and the State Government concerned has to identify autonomous organisation for setting up this complex. The Central Government finances generally upto a maximum of Rs. 1 crore for each of the complexes. The balance expenditure and recurring administrative expenditure will have to be borne by the State Government concerned.

(c) The allocation for the scheme during the current year is Rs. 2 crores and so far, an amount of Rs. 80 lakhs has been sanctioned for defray to Governments of Sikkim, Nagaland, West Bengal, Manipur and Madhya Pradesh.

(d) The scheme provides an integrated complex to facilitate all cultural activities like performing arts, literary activities and exhibitions including libraries and seminar facilities.
